Mr. John T. Campbell, Head
BBC Monitoring Service
Caversham Park

ILLEGIB

[redacted]

advising, in your absence, that the BBC Monitoring Service agrees with our proposal to transfer primary coverage responsibility for the Rumanian Home Services from Caversham to Kyrenia. We trust that the change will resolve more problems than it will create. STAT

There is, of course, the formality of establishing the additional Rumanian monitor position at our Mediterranean Bureau but in view of the circumstances we do not anticipate any serious obstacle to accomplishing this. The offer of assistance in procuring a Rumanian monitor is appreciated; [redacted] prospects in this regard are not known to us here at the moment, but I suspect he may be calling upon you.

Before closing a letter touching upon this subject, I cannot fail to reiterate our deepest appreciation of the valuable assistance which the BBC continues to render FBIS in monitor recruitment and training.

Sincerely,

[redacted] STAT

Chief, FBIS
